Proofing: Please take the time to look over your proofs closely. These documents ensure that our production team understands your vision and can effectively execute it. We will not offer re-prints, refunds, or recourse of any kind for mis-spellings or discrepancies that exist on an approved proof. Reviewing your proofs for accuracy is your responsibility. Please consolidate your feedback in a single email in order to make sure we understand your requests and can accommodate them in a timely manner.

In order to ensure a smooth proofing process, please read and consent to our proofing terms:

If more than two rounds of proof revisions are required, the client will be charged an additional $50 per revision.

Damages & Spoilage: Spoilage is an unfortunate inevitability of our manufacturing process.

Printed & embroidered apparel: We purchase extra garments to accommodate for spoilage and will include any overages in your order. Therefore, the quantities you receive may vary slightly from what is on your invoice. If we deliver less than the total quantity of your line item, you will be reimbursed for any spoilage with a refund on the method of payment you use to pay for your order. Our re-print threshold is 5% of the total quantity of a line item. If spoilage is less than 5% of the total quantity of a line item, we will compensate you with a refund accordingly. If spoilage exceeds 5%, we will re-print or re-sew to replace the spoilage.

Bandana quantities are always guaranteed

If you absolutely need the exact quantity of printed or embroidered apparel on your invoice, please let your sales representative know. Additional charges may apply.
